

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 17.

A Sham Saviour.

Liberty county, Ga., is excited over the proceedings of Dupont Bell, of Clarksville, O., who claims to be the new Messiah. He is a tall, slender individual, with long black hair. Senator Bradwell, who lives at Hinesville, is kept constantly informed as to the latest developments in the case.

"This man," he said, "appeared suddenly six weeks ago. He proclaimed himself the Son of God, and the negroes went mad over him. They deserted their fields to follow him, and now things are so bad that it is impossible to get hands on the plantations near Hinesville. The colored people kneel before him and struggle with each other for the privilege of kissing his feet. He has told them that the judgment day will be here the 18th of August. He says the white people have enjoyed their paradise on earth for the last eighteen centuries, and now it will be the black man's turn. On the eagerly-looked-for 18th every white man will be turned black and every black man white."

"He says his body was born thirty years ago in Ohio, but his soul has been since the world began. On the 25th of June he was arrested on a charge of vagrancy, but it was impossible to hold him on such a charge, as he had a quantity of money in his possession. He was to be arrested now 500 negroes would be ready to go on his bond, and the women would tear the buildings down where he was confined with their fingers to get him out. His schemes for raising money are peculiar. The last effort was a declaration that he had sent to his august father for a commission of wings, which the colored people will need on and after the 18th of August. There was a corner on wings when his requisition reached Heaven, and the Almighty was only able to send 250 pairs. These he claimed, would be delivered on Judgment Day, and in the meanwhile he would sell them at $5 a pair. Every pair has been bought and paid for. He thinks his father may be able to send him a few more pairs before the great day. There is a scheme on foot to get Bell away from his followers, arrest him quietly and have him sent on the fast train to Savannah to be locked up. This is the only way to get rid of the man. He may cause serious trouble any day."
